

Graduate Study Scholarships

\* Please note that any one college or university will have a number of internal scholarships. Some of these internal scholarships are included here, but this is by no means an exhaustive list. Those interested should check the website of each individual school you are thinking of applying to.*

Below is a list of the awards according to the region in which they are available. Some awards are available in more than one area, and are accordingly listed in each available region. Details on each award are listed alphabetically on the pages following the index.

Please note that one of the most important places to apply (which is not on the list below) is SSHRC (for Canadian and Permanent Resident students only though). Please see their application procedures at: www.sshrc-crsh.gc.ca/site/apply-demande/students-etudiants-eng.aspx
