

The role of clinicians in standards development and use

Care exists to support patient's and families

Clinicians/patient's/families provide care

Documentation is an outcome of care

Documentation creates information and knowledge

Sharing information and knowledge supports best care

Terminologies support sharing of information and knowledge

Terminologies need to be defined and implemented understanding the above

Standards need to be developed Collaboratively

