

HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE: TRAUMA AND AFTERLIGHT

Jan. 26th | 7pm | Hickman 105

Photo: Ben Nelms

Please join us on the eve of International Holocaust Remembrance Day to discuss two recent memoirs by Marsha Lederman and Isa Milman that braid together compelling stories of their parents' generation who experienced the Holocaust in Europe with their own experiences navigating the inherited memory of the past in their present lives in Canada.

The panel will be moderated by Lynne van Luven, professor emerita in the Department of Writing at UVic.

Marsha Lederman, award-winning journalist and author of Kiss the Red Stairs: The Holocaust Once Removed (Penguin Random House, 2022)

Isa Milman, award-winning poet and author of Afterlight: In Search of Poetry, History, and Home (Heritage House, 2021)

Photo: Shea Lowry

Please register for the event at <https://libcal.uvic.ca/calendar/community/light>.
A reception and book signing will follow the panel.

University
of Victoria

Germanic &
Slavic Studies

University of Victoria

Libraries