

Check out what's playing during reading week!

The Department of European Studies, The Department of Germanic and Slavic Studies and the Victoria Film Festival present:

Phoenix

Friday - FEB 13 • 6:30pm • Odeon 2

Director: Christian Petzold • Germany • 2014 • 98min

Nelly Lenz is a concentration camp survivor who has been collected by Lene from the Jewish Agency and brought back to Berlin for her reconstructive facial surgery. Once her face heals, her main focus is to find her husband, Johnny, even though he believes her to be dead. Once she finds him, he doesn't recognize her but sees similarities and asks her to "be Nelly" so he can claim her inheritance from the government. A whole new meaning of doppelgänger is born...

victoria film festival
BRINGING FILM TO LIFE

FEBRUARY 6-15 • 2015

MEDIA SPONSOR

Two-4-One

Saturday • FEB 14 • 6:30pm • Odeon 2

Sunday • FEB 15 • 12:00pm • The Vic Theatre

Director: Maureen Bradley • Victoria • 2014 • 71min

Victoria filmmaker Maureen Bradley's debut feature is a bittersweet romantic comedy with a transgender hero in an unimaginable predicament. Ex-lovers Miriam and Adam have an ill-advised and pivotal one night stand that sees them both end up pregnant.

Short: Gaysian • Austin Wong • Ontario • 10min

Why are all the gay men taking a 'no-Asian' stance? For one lonely guy, it might be time to try the one group he previously avoided – rice queens.

Partners for Peace

British Columbia Premiere

Tuesday • FEB 10 • 7:15pm • Odeon 1

Director: Ed Kucerak • Ontario • 2013 • 101min

Documentary

A delegation of 13 women, under the leadership of Nobel Prize Laureates Jody Williams and Mairead Maguire, travel to Israel to learn from and support the Palestinian women in the region who work towards the cause of peace.

Followed by a Panel Discussion: This discussion panel is organized by If Not Now, When? a Victoria-based Jewish comment group working for peaceful coexistence between Israelis and Palestinians. Visit: ifnotnow.ca

All Your Secrets • Todos tus Secretos

Canadian Premiere

Sunday • FEB 8 • 7:15pm • Parkside

Director: Manuel Bartual • Spain • 2014 • 82min

Filmed entirely through webcam footage, All Your Secrets is a remarkably clever illustration of society's reliance on technology and a startling reminder of how frequently we forfeit our privacy online. Relatable and relevant, All Your Secrets is an incisive modern parable about the perils of interconnectivity.

The Fifty Year Argument

British Columbia Premiere

Friday • FEB 13 • 6:00pm • The Vic Theatre

Director: Martin Scorsese, David Tedeschi • USA

2014 • 97min • Documentary

At a time when western culture questions the importance of the considered word, along comes The Fifty Year Argument, a documentary co-directed by Martin Scorsese and David Tedeschi that profiles the dynamic history of The New York Review of Books. The Fifty Year Argument is an accessible and thought-provoking tribute to both the well-respected publication and the power of language to effect meaningful change in society.