

European Union Centre of Excellence Lecture Series

The EU on the Global Stage: Challenges and Opportunities

The mainstream media is full of stories on the demise and dissolution of the European Union. Mr. Fantaroni will discuss why he disagrees, and why he thinks the media is overexaggerating the situation.

Mr. Stefano Fantaroni

First Counsellor, Political Affairs/Diplomacy
Delegation of the European Union to Canada

13:00 -14:00, Monday, 22 February
Clearihue A302

For more information contact eusprog@uvic.ca

Bio:

Stefano Fantaroni is First Counsellor and Political Officer at the Delegation of the European Union to Canada. Prior to this position, he worked in different positions at the European External Action Service and the European Commission, notably in departments dealing with negotiations for accession to the European Union. He has also worked at the European Commission Antitrust Directorate General. Mr Fantaroni holds a degree in Economics at the Libera Università degli Studi Sociali of Rome.

