

Student Conference: Managing Diversity, Immigration, & Multiculturalism

Thursday, 20 November 2014, 1:00pm-5:00pm, UVic

Call for Papers

The European Studies Program and the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence at the University of Victoria would like to invite graduate (and outstanding undergraduate) students from diverse faculties to present their work on diversity, immigration, and multiculturalism.

When: Thursday, 20 November, 2014

Where: UVic, Sedgewick C179 (TBD)

What: 10-15 min presentation by students
Keynote Presentation (Speaker TBA)
Panel Sessions, Chaired by EUS Faculty Members

The conference will focus on multiculturalism, immigration and diversity policies in Europe and Canada, although students are encouraged to submit proposals on any topic relating to the study of European integration and/or the European Union. This is a great opportunity for students to receive feedback on their research, workshop ideas, and meet other BC students working on the EU.

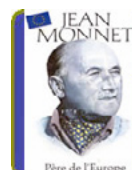

You must indicate your intent to submit an abstract BEFORE FRIDAY 31 OCTOBER. Send email to eusprog@uvic.ca with "JMCE Abstract Intent" in subject line.

Interested students should send a paper abstract of no more than 300 words to eusprog@uvic.ca no later than Monday, November 10, 2014 with "JMCE Grad Conf" in the subject line. Travel funds are available for students residing outside Victoria.

University of Victoria

European Studies
Program

Jean Monnet
Centre of Excellence