

Outside the Textbook: Holocaust Awareness Outside the Box

April 14, 2016

Victoria High School Auditorium

Segment 1 (12:15 - 1:35)

Segment 2 (1:50 - 3:05)

Opening Remarks

Dr. Charlotte Schallié and Georgina Hope

Steps Toward the Holocaust

Dr. Kristin Semmens

Dr. Semmens discusses the rise of National Socialism and instances of Antisemitism from 1933 to the beginning of WWII.

"If You Could See Her through My Eyes" - From Cabaret

Victoria Highschool Musical Theatre Program

Amrit Basi and Sijie (Jessie) Zhang
Instructor Mr. Alan Penty

Students perform a piece from the 1998 version of Cabaret. They will be presenting the musical in full from April 20th to 23rd.

A Holocaust Journey

Julius Maslovat

Julius tells the story of Yidele, a child affected by the Holocaust.

15-Minute Break

Snacks provided in the foyer.

Third Generation

Carmel Tanaka, Anat Kelerstein and Paige Gelfer

Three grandchildren of Holocaust survivors talk about their family history and personal experience.

Readers of the Holocaust

Chorong Kim

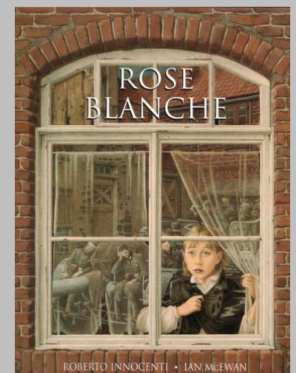

Chorong's film is a preview of her documentary about teaching with graphic novels in Georgina Hope's Social Justice and Communications classes.

The Other Side of the Fence

Tea Siskin, Andrea McVean, Leah Tidey from UVic's Applied Theatre Program

Instructor Dr. Warwick Dobson

An interactive performance with the help of student volunteers.

Closing Remarks

University of Victoria

Organized by Nicola Craig Hora, Chorong Kim, Tessa Coutu and Lauren Thompson as a project for GMST 410/ GMST 551 with support from a UVic Community Engaged Learning Fund Grant and the European Union Centre of Excellence. We would like to thank Noga Yarmar for support and assistance in organizing this event.

