

Pacific and Asian Studies

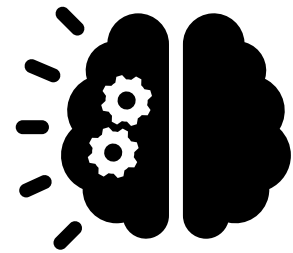

PAAS 129 Introduction to Korean II

Introduction to Korean II

Hailey Ceong
ceong@uvic.ca

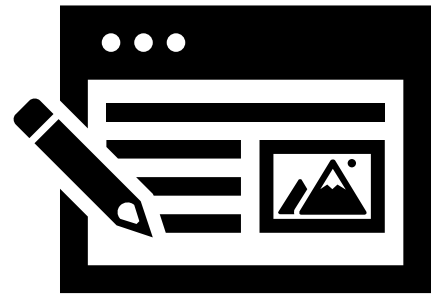

Learning Objectives:

- read, write, and dictate Hangeul;
- introduce themselves;
- ask and answer personal questions;
- talk about items and their ownership;
- order beverages/food;
- ask and tell time/dates/weather;
- talk about daily life.

Introduction to Korean II

This introduction to basic spoken and written Korean teaches students with no prior knowledge of Korean essential words and phrases to develop their conversation skill. The instructor helps students pronounce Korean correctly and the designated textbook helps them develop listening/reading comprehension and master grammar rules. Students develop their conversational skill through suggested assignments and direct interaction with the instructor and classmates.

Introduction to Korean II

Proposed Assignments:

- Quizzes: vocabulary & grammar (25 %)
- In-class Tests: comprehension and composition (20%)
- Listening test (5%)
- Individual video Project: Introducing yourself, your friend, and your and your friend's possession (5%)
- Pair Project (2 people): present a skit with your partner related to topics covered in the textbook (10%)
- Final project (25%)

- 사랑해 한국어 1 Student's books (English version); Language Education Institute of Seoul National University, Seoul National University Press, 2019.
- ◦ 사랑해 한국어 1 Workbooks (English version); Language Education Institute of Seoul National University, Seoul National University Press, 2019.