See Phil 362 CourseSpaces for on-line resources, grades, and class announcements.

Course objective: I hope that you will find this course to be enjoyable and also to be intellectually stimulating! The aim of the course is to examine and discuss some controversial issues in contemporary Philosophy of mind. Topics include intentionality, mental representation and consciousness. We will also discuss the nature and reliability of introspection and mental state attribution to others. (See the below reading list.) Lectures are designed to make the reading material accessible and understandable to students.

Lectures and class attendance: Note that lectures will often introduce concepts and figures that are not mentioned in class readings. Examination and test questions are based on lecture content. Well-maintained notes will provide an invaluable support to your successful completion of the tests and final exam.

Policy on technology use in class: Please show respect for your fellow class mates and for your Instructor by turning off phones before coming to class. Studies consistently indicate that laptop use negatively impacts the learning and performance of nearby students. If you choose to use a laptop, please do not cause distraction.

Registration status: Students are responsible for verifying their registration status. Registration status may be verified using My Page, View Schedule. Course adds and drops will not be processed after the deadlines set out in the current UVic Calendar.

Jan. 20: 100% withdraw refund deadline

Jan. 23: Add deadline

Feb. 10: 50% withdraw refund deadline

Feb. 28: Academic drop deadline

Course requirements: I will provide a “handout” for test preparation (on Coursespaces), and I will also deliver an in-class review before each test and final exam.

1. The first test will count 15% toward the final grade. There will be two questions. One question will be provided in advance.

Date: Feb. 1

2. A second test will together count 30% toward the final grade. There will be four questions. One question will be provided in advance.

Dates: March 5 & 6

3. An in-class presentation will count 15% toward the final grade. The presentation will be 7 to 15 minutes in length. Full instructions will be provided.

4. The final examination will count 40% toward the final grade. The exam will be 2 hours long and will be scheduled in the April examination period. Two questions will be provided in advance.

Grading scheme:

A+	90-100
A	85-89
A-	80-84
B+	77-79
B	73-76
B-	70-72
C+	65-69
C	60-64
D	50-59
F	0-49

Grades are rounded to the nearest whole percent (e.g., 84.5 = 85, 84.4 = 84).

For N grades and DEF status, please see the UVic Academic Calendar.

Tests will be returned in class as soon as they are graded. Final examinations are the property of the UVic, and will not be returned. Students’ grades are available through <www.uvic.ca/mypage>.

It is important for all students to read the following policy on Academic Misconduct in the UVic 2018-19 Calendar via <http://web.uvic.ca/calendar2017-05/undergrad/info/regulations/academic-integrity.html> Here are two sections of the policy:

Cheating on Tests and Examinations: Cheating includes, but is not limited to:

- copying the answers or other work of another person
- having in an examination or test any materials or equipment other than those authorized by the examiners

- accessing unauthorized information or answers when doing take-home assignments, tests, or examinations
- impersonating a student on an examination or test, or being assigned the results of such impersonation
- accessing or attempting to access examinations or tests before it is permitted to do so

Students found communicating with one another in any way or having unauthorized books, papers, notes or electronic devices in their possession during a test or examination will be considered to be in violation of this policy. (Academic Calendar 2018-19)

Plagiarism: A student commits plagiarism when he or she:

- submits the work of another person as original work
- gives inadequate attribution to an author or creator whose work is incorporated into the student's work, including failing to indicate clearly (through accepted practices within the discipline, such as footnotes, internal references and the crediting of all verbatim passages through indentations of longer passages or the use of quotation marks) the inclusion of another individual's work
- paraphrases material from a source without sufficient acknowledgement as described above

The University reserves the right to use plagiarism detection software programs to detect plagiarism in essays, term papers and other work. (UVic Academic Calendar 2018-19)

Missed tests and exam: You are responsible for attending scheduled tests and examination. If you miss either of the tests for a justifiable reason (i.e. illness, accident, or family affliction), your course requirement percentage weighting will be adjusted. Otherwise, you will receive a score of zero.

If you miss the final exam for an allowable reason (i.e. illness, accident, or family affliction), you must apply to Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession". This application must be made within ten working days of missing the exam (See Annual Calendar). If this request is approved, you will be assigned a make-up exam. If this request is not approved, you will receive a score of zero.

Information regarding religious observance can be located in the UVic Calendar, and in posted Philosophy Department Policies.

Course experience survey (CES): I value your feedback on this course. Towards the end of term you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential course experience survey (CES) regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to me regarding the course and my teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://ces.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey, which can be done on your laptop, tablet or mobile device.

Territory Acknowledgment: The University of Victoria is committed to acknowledging and respecting the Songhees, Esquimalt and WSÁNEĆ peoples on whose traditional territory the University stands and whose historical relationships with the land continue to this day.

The University of Victoria is committed to promoting, providing and protecting a positive and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members
