COVID-19 SPECIAL MEASURES

University of Victoria

International Centre
for Students

FACILITATION MEASURES: PART-TIME STATUS

- Students in Canada or outside of Canada may have been required to put their studies on hold or become part-time students due to course cancellations that were the result of public health measures at DLIs.
 - For the winter, spring and summer semesters of 2020 only (that is, between January 1, 2020, and August 31, 2020), if a student's status changed from full-time to part-time because of changes in course delivery at a DLI, their eligibility for a PGWP will not be impacted.

FULL FACILITATION MEASURES: DISTANCE LEARNING

- All students who were enrolled in PGWP-eligible programs in March 2020, or who started a program of study between March 2020 and August 31, 2022, are allowed to complete up to 100% of their studies through distance learning due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

REDUCED FACILITATION MEASURES: DISTANCE LEARNING

All students who started or will start a program of study between September 1, 2022, and August 31, 2024, are required to complete at least 50% of their program of study in Canada (online or in class).

- For the above group of students, up until August 31, 2024, time spent studying outside of Canada can be counted toward the overall length of the PGWP only if it constitutes less than 50% of the program.

Any time a student spent studying outside of Canada after August 31, 2024, and any time spent studying outside Canada before applying for a study permit, will be deducted from the length of the PGWP, regardless of when the student started or will start their program of study.
