

Podcasts, media & more

All my relations Podcast

All my relations Podcast explores what it means to be an Indigenous person nowadays. It focuses on the relationship an Indigenous person is engaged in. It is hosted by Matika Wilbur and Adrienne Keene.

Audiovisual Library of International Law

This website of the United Nations contains historic archives, lecture series, and a research library with permanent collection of written and audio-visual materials prepared by eminent international law scholars and practitioners.

Bearpaw Legal Education

Bearpaw Legal Education focuses on culturally relevant legal topics to benefit Indigenous peoples. It is produced with the support of Native Counselling Services of Alberta.

Book Women Podcast

This is a podcast made by and dedicated to Indigenous peoples who have an interest in editing, publishing, and writing Indigenous stories. It is hosted by Tanya Ball, Sheila Laroque and Kayla Lar-son.

Briefly

In each episode of Briefly, an expert discusses either an important court case, a current legal controversy, or a relevant issue of legal scholarship. It is produced by the University of Chicago Law Review.

Fundamentals of Canadian Law

Fundamental of Canadian Law aims to cover any and all aspects of the law in Canada. It is produced by the Queen's University Certificate in Law.

Ideablawg Podcast

This is a podcast on the Criminal Code of Canada. It is produced by Lisa Silver, Associate Professor at the University of Calgary Faculty of Law.

Intrepid

Intrepid is a podcast about Canadian national security, law and policy. It was founded by Stephanie Carvin and Craig Forcese.

Podcasts, media & more

LawLawLand

This is a podcast produced for everyone interested in law and rights. It is hosted by Mindy Caterina and Garrett Jamieson

Legal Skies

Legal Skies is a podcast that covers a variety of topics related to legal education and practice across Canada. It is produced by the Law Society of Saskatchewan.

Media Indigena: interactive Indigenous insight

This is a weekly podcast on Indigenous current affairs. It is hosted by Rick Harp.

Paw & Order

Paw & Order is a podcast on current issues of Canadian animal law. It is hosted by Peter Sankoff and Camille Labchuk.

RAVEN DeBriefs Podcast

RAVEN DeBriefs Podcast consists of a series of conversations between Indigenous thinkers, legal experts, community leaders, and organizers exploring different aspects of the shifting Canadian landscape.

RightsUp

This podcast, produced by the Oxford Human Rights Hub, aims to advance the understanding and protection of human rights. Each episode brings together experts from different countries to develop new approaches to human rights law and policy.

Serial

Serial is the most downloaded podcast. Each season of this investigative journalism podcast focuses on different aspects of the US court system by exploring nonfiction criminal cases. It is hosted by Sarah Koenig.

The Henceforward

This is a podcast that analyzes the relationships between Indigenous peoples and Black peoples. It is produced by Eve Touch and Sefanit Habtom.

Podcasts, media & more

The Law School Show

The Law School Show is a podcast produced by law students for law students. It covers a variety of areas of law such as public and environmental law. It also explores different aspects of legal education and practice in Canada.

The Lawfare

The Lawfare podcast presents interviews with policymakers, scholars, journalists, and analysts discussing current issues of national security, law, and policy. It is produced by the Lawfare Institute and the Brookings Institution.

The Legal Academy

Throughout a series of episodes, professor Orin Kerr hosts a variety of interviews with leading law professors who explain topics that will interest law professors and people aiming to become law professors.

The McGill Law Journal Podcast

In each episode of this podcast, prominent legal experts explore important issues of Canadian and International law.

The Ottawa Law Review Podcast

This podcast explores current legal issues in Canada.

The trauma-informed lawyer

The trauma-informed lawyer is a podcast produced to shine light on trauma-informed lawyering, a competency that law graduates do not get instruction on. It is hosted by Myrna McCallum.

Think Indigenous

This is a podcast committed to improving best practices in Indigenous Education. It is produced by Ryan McMahon and the Think Indigenous International Education Conference.

University of Victoria
Law & Society
Research Group

Podcasts, media & more

This Land

This Land is a ten-episode podcast providing an in depth look at how a murder case in Oklahoma could result in the largest restoration of tribal land in US history. It is hosted by Rebecca Nagle.

What Trump can teach us about Con Law

This is a weekly podcast about constitutional law. It explores relevant topics of constitutional law by focusing on the erratic activities of the Trump presidency. It is hosted by Roman Mars and Elizabeth Joh, Constitutional Law professor at UC Davis School of law.

Last Updated: July 24, 2020