Institute on Aging & Lifelong Health

Description

The Alice Lou-Poy Graduate Scholarship was created by former UVic Chancellor Ronald Lou-Poy in memory of his mother. The scholarship is a gift from the community and the Lou-Poy family.

The Alice Lou-Poy Graduate Scholarship will be awarded to up to two outstanding graduate students conducting research on Alzheimer's disease or another form of dementia.

Eligibility

a) Applicants must be full-time graduate students with a minimum GPA of 7.00.
b) Applicants must be conducting research on Alzheimer's disease or another form of dementia.
c) Both Master's and Doctoral students are eligible to apply.
d) Students may be at any stage in their studies.
e) Students may be studying in any faculty, department, school/division or program at UVic.
f) Applicants must be formally affiliated with the Institute on Aging and Lifelong Health (IALH) by the application deadline. Applicants may apply to become an IALH Student Affiliate within the application submission period. For more information, contact IALHresearch@uvic.ca.

Funding

One scholarship valued at $940.00

Conditions

The name, degree, year, and department of the successful applicant will be made public through IALH communication channels (e.g., newsletters, website, social media platforms, etc.). The successful applicant may be asked to present their proposed research project at one or more events hosted by IALH during the 2024/2025 and/or 2025/2026 academic years.

Selection of Recipient

Applications will be reviewed by a three- to five- member Adjudication Committee. As part of the review process, the committee will consider the applicant's summary of their project as well as their research interests, previous work, and volunteer experiences as they relate to individuals with Alzheimer's disease or another form of dementia.

Selection of the recipient(s) will be made by the Faculty of Graduate Studies Graduate Awards Committee upon recommendation of the Institute on Aging and Lifelong Health.

Application Process
