

Indonesia After Soeharto - Reformasi and Reaction International Colloquium Proceedings

Table of Contents

Preface by William A.W. Neilson

Contributors

Introduction by Tim Lindsey

The Rush to Law: IMF Legal Conditionalities Meet Indonesia's Legal Realities by William A.W. Neilson

En-Gendering Democratization by Saraswati Sunindyo

Can Indonesia Escape Dualistic and Dichotomous Development? (from Bonanza Rent-Seeking to Broad-Based Participation) by Geoffrey B. Hainsworth

Centrifugal Forces: A Dilemma Revisited by Christopher J. Dagg

The Rights of Indigenous Peoples & Ethnic Minorities in Indonesia: East Timor &
West Papua in Transition by Shelley Wright

Comments on the Course of Law Reform in Modern Indonesia by Daniel S. Lev

Indonesian Law Reform or Once More unto the Breach: A Brief Institutional
History by David K. Linnan

Notes on the Culture of the Reformasi Era by Michael H. Bodden

Post-Soeharto Activist Art in Progress: Orbaba, Sok Sadar or Tabas? by *Astri
Wright*

'Corruption' as Rational Response in the Aspal State: The Failure of Reformasi
Hukum by Tim Lindsey