

University of Victoria

Centre for Asia-Pacific Initiatives

a Graduate Research Forum talk

The Impact of Filial Piety on Chinese Leftover Women's Choices in Marriage

Qian Liu

Feb 8 // 3pm

SED C168

In this presentation, UVic Law PhD candidate Qian Liu will explore how Chinese leftover women understand "filial piety," and how the changes in the meanings and practices of filial piety reinforce the belief that a harmonious relationship with parents, rather than autonomy in marriage and childbearing, is of the greatest value in human life