GHOSTLY WALKS TOUR

JOIN US FOR AN HOUR OF CHILLING TALES

Get into the mood for Halloween with a Ghostly Walks tour with father-and-son team, John and Chris Adams. They have been collecting spooky stories about Victoria and conducting their popular tours for over twenty-two years. This is a special tour for UVic Retirees and their guests. It will start at Market Square (560 Johnson Street under the Archway entrance) and wind its way through parts of Chinatown, along the harbour, into Bastion Square and finish in time for lunch at the Bard and Banker (Fort and Government Streets). At the Bard and Banker hear the fascinating story of poet Robert Service who once was a teller at the bank and who has returned to haunt the place. Discover the reason why his ghost is there and hear many other classic ghost stories on this ninety-minute leisurely walk.
