

TRADITIONAL RETAIL MARKETS IN THE UK: THE ROLE OF SELECT COMMITTEES

Alan Hallsworth

University of Portsmouth

Alan Hallsworth, recently retired from the University of Surrey, UK was recently a specialist adviser on traditional markets to a UK Parliament Select Committee (CLG). In his talk he will explain the role of CLG and the relevance of the findings. A Geographer by training, Alan's main area of research is retailing – including Canada – and he has lectured at Manchester Business School as well as holding full Professor posts at two other universities