

University of Victoria

Interdisciplinary Minor/Diploma in Social Justice Studies

Term: September-December 2024

Teaching Assistant Vacancy for SJS 100

(CUPE 4163 Specialist Instructional Laboratory Instructors & Academic Assistants)

POSITION AVAILABLE:

SJS 100, Introduction to the Theories of Social Justice - 1 Academic Assistant, 150 hours total.

Rate of Pay $31.8 per hour (effective September 2024).

This class is scheduled to meet face to face on Tuesday from 5:00-7:50 pm. The TA must be available to attend every class.

This interdisciplinary, introductory course focuses on theories of social justice and is taught by one instructor from a cross-disciplinary perspective. The class will examine the central theoretical frameworks utilized by scholars working in this diverse field. It will introduce students to key thinkers associated with social justice studies and develop a comprehensive and critical understanding of the concepts that these thinkers apply to social justice issues.

POSITION DESCRIPTION:

Under the supervision of the course instructor, the Teaching Assistant will do some or all of the following:

1. Track student attendance and participation
2. Help in the classroom, particularly with group discussions
3. Advise students on course content and assignments
4. Organize and facilitate group projects if assigned
5. Help with the Brightspace site – e.g., posting of content and facilitation of out-of-class discussion.
6. Hold office hours by appointment
7. Grade short weekly assignments

How to Apply:

Complete the University of Victoria Application Form, which can be found on the Social Justice Studies website, and send it by email along with a curriculum vitae/resume on or before 4:00 pm on July 31, 2024 to: Dr. Reuben Rose-Redwood, Acting Director, Undergraduate Interdisciplinary Programs in Social Sciences.