Territorial Acknowledgement and Commitment to Inclusive Learning

We acknowledge with respect the Lekwungen peoples on whose traditional territory the university stands and the SongheewDRAFTs, Esquimalt, and WSÁNEĆ peoples whose historical relationships with the land continue to this day.

We are committed to making our best efforts to provide a safe, supportive, and effective learning environment for all students. See <https://www.uvic.ca/equity/index.php> and the section below on Health and Wellness Promotion.

Course Description: This course will enable to students to apply psychological, social and cultural concepts to marketing decision making. Topics will include theories of attitude formation and change, memory, personality consumer decision making, behavioural outcomes and the importance of consumer behaviour and research. Throughout the course an emphasis will be placed on the application of theoretical knowledge to various marketing situations.

Learning Outcomes: Upon completion of this course, you will:

- Understand current psychological theories and research related to consumer behaviour.
- Understanding the purchase decisions making process.
- Understanding extrinsic, intrinsic and situational factors affecting the consumer decision making process.
- Demonstrate how major principles and processes apply to current marketing and consumption issues.
- Critically evaluate the effectiveness of various advertisement and promotions and their attempts to influence the behaviours of individuals.
- Analyse trends in consumer behaviour and apply them to the marketing of an actual product or service

Textbooks: Required

Babin, B.J., Harris, E., & Murray, K. B. (2017). Consumer Behaviour (3rd Canadian ed.). Toronto, ON. Cengage Learning Inc.

Recommended

Cialdini, R. B. (2008). Influence: science and practice (5th ed.). Englewood Cliffs, NJ: Prentice Hall.

Additional Readings: Additional readings (i.e., research /articles papers) will also be assigned during the course. These research papers must be read before the scheduled class and student should be prepared to discuss them in class.

Grades:

A+	9	90-100%	B+	6	77-79%	C+	3	65-69%	F	0	<50%
A	8	85-89%	B	5	73-76%	C	2	60-64%
A-	7	80-84%	B-	4	70-72%	D	1	50-59%

Assessment:

	Course Grade Value	Date
Examinations (In-Class)	15% x 4 (Total = 60%)	TBD
Research Proposal	20%	02 Dec
Consumption Project
Part 1	5%	07 Oct
Part 2	5%	04 Nov
Part 3	10%	25 Nov
Research Participation (SONA)	3% (Bonus)

Consumption Project (details will be provided in class): This is a group and individual project that will allow students to increase their understanding of consumer behaviours through the application of consumer psychological theories, concepts and research. Students will be expected to critically review the theory and concepts covered in class and describe how consumer research can be used to gain insights and make recommendations on consumer strategy. The project will be comprised of 3 separate parts. Part 1, working in groups students will build a consumption journal. Part 2, groups will create a consumer profile for each member and for their group. Finally, in Part 3 students will develop a campaign analysis and profile comparison.

Research Proposal: Students will select a topic related to Consumer Psychology. The emphasis of the research proposal should be on the practical application of the theories and concepts covered during the course. The proposal will be written in APA format (Professional Paper format). The length of the proposal should be approximately 2500 words (plus or minus 10%) not including title page, references or appendices.

Research Participation (3% Bonus): You have the option of either participating in psychology studies through the Research Participation Pool (or completing short journal article reviews). NOTE: 1 SONA credit = 1% towards your grade.

Class Participation: For the class to be successful, everyone involved must contribute. This includes preparing for class by completing the reading materials and assignments on time, attending class, arriving on time, participating in class discussions, and participating in all class discussions/exercises. Participation is an important component of the class.

Late Submissions: The penalty for late submissions for the written assignments is 25% per day up to a maximum of 100%, papers more than 3 day late will receive a grade of zero (0), but the assignment must still be submitted to fulfill the requirements of the course. Further, all assigned coursework must be submitted before students will be eligible to receive a final grade.

Failure to complete the research proposal, consumption project (all parts) and all examinations will result in a grade of “N” regardless of the cumulative percentage of all other elements of the course. Note, “N” is a failing grade and factors into GPA as a value of 0.

In accordance with the University’s policy on academic concessions, “A student who completes all course requirements is not eligible for an academic concession”. Consequently, students can only request deferrals for the completion of required course components and not for non-essential course component.

Other Important Information

Emailing the lecturer: Use your UVic address. The subject line should include the course number (PSYC 333) and a clear statement of purpose. Email represents formal correspondence; as such, you should use proper salutations and full sentences. If you have a specific question about the course material or assignment, please see me after class, during office hours or by appointment. Course assignments cannot normally be submitted by email*.

Attendance and Absences: Medical documentation for short-term absences is not required. Attendance is important. Students who cannot attend due to illness are asked to notify their instructors immediately. If illness, accident, or family affliction causes a student to miss the final examination or to fail to complete any assignment by the end of term students are required to submit a request for academic concession.

- Policies regarding undergraduate student academic concession and deferral are also detailed on the Undergraduate Records. Students must submit a Request for Academic Concession.

Learning Experience: The University of Victoria is committed to creating a learning experience that is as accessible as possible. If you are registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning and anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please feel welcome to discuss your concerns with me. If you are a student with a disability or chronic health condition, you can meet with a CAL advisor to discuss access and accommodations.

Academic Integrity: Students are required to abide by all academic regulations as set out in the University calendar, including standards of academic integrity. Violations of academic integrity (e.g., cheating and plagiarism) are considered serious and may result in significant penalties.

Copyright ©: All course content and materials made available by the instructors for educational purposes and for the exclusive use of students registered in their class^[1]. The material is protected under copyright law, even if not marked with a ©. Any further use or distribution of the materials requires written permission from the instructor, except under fair dealing or another exception in the Copyright Act. Violations may result in disciplinary action under the Resolution of Non-Academic Misconduct Allegations policy (AC1300).

Online Conduct: The University of Victoria is committed to promoting critical academic discourse while providing a respectful and supportive learning environment. All members of the university community have the right to this experience and the responsibility to help create such an environment. The university will not tolerate racism, sexual violence, or any form of discrimination, bullying or harassment.

Please be advised that, by logging in UVic's learning systems or interacting with online resources, and course related communication platforms, you are engaging in a university activity.

All interactions within this environment are subject to the university expectations and policies. Any concerns about student conduct may be reviewed and responded to in accordance with the appropriate university policy.

Accessible Learning

The University of Victoria is committed to creating a learning experience that is as accessible as possible. If you are registered with the Centre for Accessible Learning and anticipate or experience any barriers to learning in this course, please feel welcome to discuss your concerns with me. If you are a student with a disability or chronic health condition, you can meet with a CAL advisor to discuss access and accommodations.

Attendance and Absences

Attendance is important. Students are expected to attend all classes in which they are enrolled. Students may be assigned a final grade of N or debarred from writing final examinations if they fail to satisfy a minimum attendance requirement set by the instructor for lectures, laboratories, online course discussions or learning activities, tutorials, or other learning activities set out in the course outline.

Medical documentation for short-term absences is not required (approved by Senate). Students who cannot attend due to illness are asked to notify their instructors immediately. If illness, accident, or family affliction causes a student to miss the final exam or to fail to complete any required assignment/assessment by the end of the term students are required to submit a request for academic concession (see below).

Children and Pets

If you need to bring your children or pet to class, please do not hesitate to do so. It is understood that sometimes this is necessary due to care circumstances. However, please aim to have minimal class disturbance so that student learning is not impacted.

Class Recording and Auto-Captioning Statement

The instructor may record class sessions and those recordings may be made available to all students in the class via Brightspace. If you have questions or concerns regarding class recording and privacy, please contact privacyinfo@uvic.ca

Auto-generated captioning may be enabled in this course. Auto-captioning is highly error-prone, especially for specialized terminology and proper names. Students are asked to refer to the audio feed for clarification of any errors. If you find captioning errors that are offensive, please contact your instructor and/or teaching assistant so that they are aware. If you require captions as part of an academic accommodation, please contact CAL.

Commitment to Inclusivity, Diversity, and Respectful Environments in the Classroom and Online

The University of Victoria is committed to providing a positive and supportive and safe learning and working environment for all its members. All members of the university community have the right to this experience and the responsibility to help create such an environment. The University will not tolerate racism, sexualized violence, or any form of discrimination, bullying, or harassment.

Please be advised that, by logging into UVic's learning systems or interacting with online resources and course-related communication platforms, you are engaging in a University activity.

All interactions within this environment are subject to the university expectations and policies. Any concerns about student conduct may be reviewed and responded to in accordance with the appropriate university policy.

Course Experience Survey (CES)

I value your feedback on this course. Toward the end of term, you will have the opportunity to complete a confidential course experience survey (CES) regarding your learning experience. The survey is vital to providing feedback to the instructor regarding the course and their teaching, as well as to help the department improve the overall program for students in the future. When it is time for you to complete the survey, you will receive an email inviting you to do so. If you do not receive an email invitation, you can go directly to <http://ces.uvic.ca>. You will need to use your UVic NetLink ID to access the survey, which can be done on your laptop, tablet or mobile device. You will be reminded nearer the time, but please be thinking about this important activity, especially the following three questions, during the course.

1. What strengths did your instructor demonstrate that helped you learn in this course?
2. Please provide specific suggestions as to how the instructor could have helped you learn more effectively.
3. Please provide specific suggestions as to how this course could be improved.

Disclaimer

The above schedule, policies, procedures, and assignments in this course are subject to change in the event of extenuating circumstances.

Grading

In classes that are based on a percentage grading scheme, the following Undergraduate Grading Scale is used

Grade	A+	A	A-	B+	B	B-	C+	C	D	F
Percentage	90-100	85-89	80-84	77-79	73-76	70-72	65-69	60-64	51-59	< 50
GP Value	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0

Rounding is only applied to the final grade and is rounded up at the 0.5% level (e.g., 84.49% is round to 84% and 84.50% is rounded to 85%).

Medical Documentation for absences

No medical documentation for short-term absences is required (Approved by Senate).

If you are seeking a Withdrawal Extenuating Circumstances or an Aegrotat grade, medical documentation may be required if relevant.

Ombudsperson and Academic Concerns

From the course calendar...

Depending on the nature of the academic matter of concern to the student, the order in which the student should normally try to resolve the matter is: first, the course instructor; second, the Chair of the department; third, the Dean of the faculty; and finally, the Senate.

If you are having an academic concern or problem that cannot be resolved with your instructor or the Department Associate Chair, you may wish to consult with the Office of the Ombudsperson (<https://uvicombudsperson.ca>). Current contact information for the office can be found here <https://uvicombudsperson.ca/contact/>.

Policy on Academic Integrity including Plagiarism and Cheating

The Department of Psychology fully endorses and intends to enforce rigorously the Senate Policy on Academic Integrity. It is of utmost importance that students who do their work honestly be protected from those who do not. Because this policy is in place to ensure that students carry out and benefit from the learning activities assigned in each course, it is expected that students will cooperate in its implementation.

The offences defined by the policy can be summarized briefly as follows:

1. Plagiarism. You must make sure that the work you submit is your work and not someone else's. There are proper procedures for citing the works of others. The student is responsible for being aware of and using these procedures.
2. Unauthorized Use of an Editor. The use of an editor is prohibited unless the instructor grants explicit written authorization.
3. Multiple Submission. Only under exceptional circumstances may a work submitted to fulfill an academic requirement be used to satisfy another similar requirement. The student is responsible for clarifying this with the instructor(s) involved.
4. Falsifying Materials Subject to Academic Evaluation. This includes falsification of data, use of commercially prepared essays, using information from the Internet without proper citation, citing sources from which material is not actually obtained, etc.
5. Cheating on Assignments, Tests, and Examinations. You may not copy the work of others in or out of class; you may not give your work to others for the purpose of copying; you may not use unauthorized material or equipment during examinations or tests; and you may not impersonate or allow yourself to be impersonated by another at an examination. The Department of Psychology has a policy of not making old examinations available for study purposes. Therefore, use of old exams without the express written permission of the instructor constitutes cheating by the user, and abetting of cheating by the person who provided the exam.
6. Aiding Others to Cheat. It is a violation to help others or attempt to help others to engage in any of the conduct described above.

The use of a generative artificial intelligence (AI) is strictly prohibited in any submitted work (unless expressly endorsed by the instructor as part of an assignment).

Instructors are expected to make every effort to prevent cheating and plagiarism. This may include the assignment of seating for examinations, asking students to move during examinations, requests to see student identification cards, and other measures as appropriate. Instructors also have available to them a variety of tools and procedures to check for Internet and electronic media-based cheating. In instances of suspected or actual plagiarism or cheating, instructors, following prescribed procedures, are authorized to take steps consistent with the degree of the offence. These measures will range from a zero on the test or assignment or a failing grade for the course, probation within a program to temporary or even permanent suspension from the University.

Rights of Appeal are described in the Policy on Academic Integrity in the University calendar Fall 2023.

Prerequisites

Students who remain in courses for which they do not have the prerequisites do so at their own risk. Students who complete courses without prerequisites ARE NOT exempt from having to complete the prerequisite course(s) if such courses are required for the degree program.

Program Requirements

For more information see the UVic Calendar.

Registration Status

Students are responsible for verifying their registration status. Registration status may be verified using My Page, View Schedule. Course adds and drops will not be processed after the deadlines set out in the current UVic Calendar.

Students who do not attend classes must not assume that they have been dropped from a course by an academic unit or an instructor. Courses that are not formally dropped will be given a failing grade, students may be required to withdraw and will be required to pay the tuition fee for the course.

Request for Academic Concessions

Students can apply for academic concessions if their course requirements are affected by (i) unexpected and/or unavoidable circumstances (e.g., illness, family affliction, etc.), or (ii) conflicting responsibilities (e.g., service in the armed forces or first responder, representing the university).

- Request an in-course extension
If you require more time to complete a course requirement or miss a test or midterm exam, then you will need to complete the "In-Course Extension Form" and submit it directly to your course instructor. All course requirements must be completed prior to the submission of final grades.
- What to do if you miss the final exam scheduled during the formal exam period
Apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession", normally within 10 working days of the date of the exam. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation (for example, a deferred exam). Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student's academic record.
- What to do if you require additional time to complete course requirements beyond the normal term.
Apply at Records Services for a "Request for Academic Concession", normally within 10 working days of the end of the course. Records Services will forward the form to the instructor. If the concession is granted, the instructor will determine how to deal with the situation. Where a concession is not applied for or where such application is denied, an N grade will be entered on the student's academic record if the missing work has been deemed required. Note, only required course components may be deferred.

Research Participation Opportunities with the Department of Psychology

The Department of Psychology offers multiple opportunities to participate in research studies over the year. Students are encouraged to learn more about the field of psychology by volunteering in these studies. Information about studies can often be found posted on notice boards around the Department as well as through our Participant Pool webpage at <https://www.uvic.ca/socialsciences/psychology/research/participants/>.
